

James M. Anderson

Jim Anderson is the Managing Member of Anderson Crawley & Burke, PLLC, a firm headquartered in Ridgeland, Mississippi. Mr. Anderson has served on the Board of Directors of the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Educational Association, Inc. since 2006 and has been Program Chairman for the Conference since 2008.

Mr. Anderson is a founding member of the Workers' Compensation Defense Institute and presents regularly at the Workers' Compensation Institute's annual conference in Orlando. He is also a fellow in the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers (<http://www.cwclawyers.org/>). Mr. Anderson has been a faculty member for numerous seminars and programs relating to workers' compensation and other employment and insurance related issues throughout his career.

Mr. Anderson serves on the National Board of Directors for the Multiple Sclerosis Association of America (www.mymsaa.org) headquartered in Cherry Hill, New Jersey.

A University of Southern Mississippi graduate (BS, 1971) and Mississippi College School of Law graduate (JD, 1978), Mr. Anderson's current focus in law practice is in the areas of workers' compensation litigation, insurance/self-insurance regulation, and mediation. Mr. Anderson is admitted to practice before all courts in the State of Mississippi and before the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Anderson has carried Martindale Hubbell's highest rating (AV) since 1990; has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America since 1995; was named by Best Lawyers as Lawyer of the Year—Workers' Compensation, Employers, Jackson area, in 2012; and is listed as a Mid-South Super Lawyer in the area of Workers' Compensation. Mr. Anderson is a member of the American Bar Association, Mississippi Bar Association, Defense Research Institute, Council on Litigation Management, and the American Society of Workers' Compensation Professionals.