

Jennifer joined Mississippi Municipal Service Company in January 2012 as the Project Development Coordinator to handle educational programs, underwriting, marketing, and special projects for the municipalities in Mississippi. MS Municipal Service Company is dedicated to providing exceptional workers' compensation and municipal liability coverage at competitive prices for municipalities and other public entities. Previously, Jennifer worked at AmFed Companies for over 11 years where she was responsible for corporate marketing, branding, public relations, events, contracts, and communications for the company. Prior to AmFed, Jennifer worked at IBM, Conway Computer Group, and Venture System Source in various roles from project management to software training on many different software products in various industries on various technology platforms. Jennifer is a past president of the MWCEA Board and served in other officer roles beginning in July 2009. Jennifer is a member of the Professional Woman's Association, Public Risk Management Association (PRIMA), and Parkway Hills United Methodist Church. She resides in Madison, MS with her husband and step-daughter.