

Becky Hillhouse is the Regional Claims Manager for the Gulf South Region of Eastern Alliance Insurance Group. She manages claims in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, and Texas. Hillhouse currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Educational Association, Inc. (MWCEA).

Hillhouse graduated from Mississippi College and has held a career in the insurance industry for over 28 years. During her career, she created and instructed adjuster training programs, managed self-insured, assigned risk and traditional insurance claims, and conducted client services programs providing risk services, loss analysis, and return to work programs. Hillhouse assisted the Mississippi Insurance Department with the creation of the workers' compensation adjuster license exam. She is a frequent speaker at educational conferences including the 2019 Workers' Compensation Institute's conference in Orlando in a program titled: Women Trail Blazers and Ceiling Breakers in Workers' Compensation. She has been a contributing author and instructor for the MS Association of Self-Insurer's Certified Self-Insured Workers' Compensation Professional program and holds that designation.

Hillhouse is a licensed adjuster in Mississippi, Louisiana, and Arkansas. She is married with two daughters and lives in Madison, Mississippi.