

Michael Traylor

Michael is an attorney for Richard Schwartz & Associates, P.A. Michael has served on the Board of Directors of the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Educational Association, Inc., since 2019. He also serves on the Kids' Chance of Mississippi awareness committee, which educates the public about the Kids' Chance of Mississippi scholarship program available for children who have had a parent killed or permanently disabled due to an on-the-job injury.

Michael received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Belhaven University in 2005, and his Juris Doctor degree from Mississippi College School of Law in 2010. While in law school, Michael was a member of the Moot Court Board and president of the student chapter of the Christian Legal Society. He also served as an intern with the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Commission.

Prior to law school, Michael worked as a claims adjuster for a Mississippi-based insurance company, and after law school his initial practice primarily involved defending insurance companies. Michael joined Richard Schwartz & Associates in 2013, and his practice is now primarily dedicated to helping injured workers, disabled individuals, and individuals with personal injuries.
