

Jennifer joined ICM Cyber in December 2019 as their Vendor Relations & Marketing Manager to assist the company grow providing cyber defense security solutions to over 500 customers in 35 states. ICM was founded in 2001 and has sales reps and engineers scattered through the U.S. regularly providing defense software, appliances and support with "personal" service. Through her prior experience with cyber insurance, entering into the technology environment was a natural "fit" for her skill set.

Jennifer is a licensed Property & Casualty and Life & Health Producer in Mississippi who formerly worked with Brown & Brown Insurance providing cyber insurance as well as other lines of insurance coverage. Jennifer's contacts are far and wide including government public entities as well as large commercial private business in all industries facing today's emerging risks of a cyber breach.

Jennifer has worked in various roles including Underwriter & Marketing Development at The Mississippi Municipal Service Company for 6 ½ years serving 260 municipalities, school districts and community colleges within Mississippi. From November 2000 to December 2012, Jennifer was the Director of Marketing at AmFed Companies where she was responsible for corporate marketing, branding, public relations, events, contracts, account management, imaging, disaster recovery and communications for the company. Jennifer's career began at IBM in the early 80's for 10 years and then on to Conway Computer Group and Venture System Source, both software development companies where she held various roles from project management and software implementation while training end users on a medical system, policy and claims system as well as a casino management system using different technology platforms. Jennifer is a past president of the MWCEA Board in 2012 and served in other officer roles beginning her tenure in July 2009. In 2019, Jennifer was honored as a finalist in the MS Business Journal's Top 50 Leading Business Women of the Year. She is also an active member of the Professional Woman's Association, an Ambassador for the Madison Chamber, an affiliate member of the MS Supervisors Association, Public Risk Management Association (PRIMA), and Parkway Hills United Methodist Church. She resides in Madison, MS with her husband and step-daughter.
