

Leigh-Ann Tabor

Leigh-Ann is a Louisiana native. She received her Bachelor of Arts in elementary education from Northwestern State University and Adult Education certification from Louisiana Tech. She taught in Louisiana, Mississippi and Florida.

After years of teaching, Leigh-Ann returned to school and received her J.D. from Mississippi College School of Law in Jackson, MS. She is licensed to practice in all Mississippi state and federal courts. Leigh-Ann holds a Mississippi Insurance Producer's License and is rated AV Preeminent by Martindale Hubbell for legal ability and ethical standards.

After having a solo practice, Leigh-Ann joined forces with her brother, Jonathan C. Tabor, to open Tabor Law Firm, P.A. in January 2010. She has represented injured workers across Mississippi since that time.
