

T.G. is a graduate of the A.B. Freeman School of Business, Tulane University. He subsequently obtained his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Mississippi School of Law in 1989. T.G. represented corporate and financial creditors in bankruptcy and foreclosure practice in his early career. He then joined Markow Walker, P.A., in 1994 and is currently the firm's Managing Shareholder. The firm has 4 offices, throughout Mississippi and Alabama.

T.G. devotes his practice primarily to workers compensation litigation in front of the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Commission on trial and appellate levels on behalf of employers and insurance carriers, as well as self-insured employers and their third-party administrators. He participates in various seminars on the subject of workers' compensation, including presentations at the MWCEA's Annual Worker's Compensation Conference, and MASI's CSIWCP program.

T.G. is a member the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Education Association Board of Directors and is currently serving as its President. He is also proud to serve on the St. Joseph Catholic High School Advisory Council. He is an approved mediator of the Kid's Chance Scholarship Mediation Program of the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Commission. T.G. resides in Ridgeland with his wife Stephanie, and children, Anna Grace (Ole Miss Law), Trey (U.S.M.) and twins, Claire and Christian (St. Joe Bruins-Seniors).
