Amy Hardin is a Regional Claims Supervisor with Eastern Alliance. She previously served on the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Educational Association (MWCEA) Steering Committee and joined the Board of Directors in 2022.

Amy has over 30 years in the insurance industry managing workers' compensation and liability claims in multi jurisdictions. She began her career at the MS Hospital Association/Reciprocal Group where she served as a Claims Consultant and Account Manager. Prior to joining Eastern Alliance in 2014, Amy served as the Human Resources Manager for a large healthcare corporation. In this role, she also enjoyed managing the employer's workers' compensation and safety programs. The development of a comprehensive workplace safety program resulted in a significant reduction in the employer's experience modification rate and generated a national safety award. Amy also served as the Assistant Director of Corporate Compliance where she was responsible for ensuring licensure requirements and regulatory compliance for home health and hospice agencies.

In her role at Eastern Alliance, Amy is responsible for the supervision of claims in MS, AL, AR, LA, TX, NC, SC, GA & VA. Amy is very involved with Kids' Chance of MS, serving on the Board of Directors. Amy is graduate of Hinds Community College. She and her husband are the proud parents of three children.
